

WCC Midweek Teaching

Marriage

Since God chose you to be the holy people he loves, you must clothe yourselves with tenderhearted mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. Make allowance for each other's faults and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you, so you must forgive others. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony. - Colossians 3:12-14, NLT

Discussion Questions

Todd Gerst

Think about your marriage vows. Which have been the most challenging to keep? Which have been the easiest to keep? Why?

How have you respected your spouse by letting them be who they are, not who you want them to be? How have you accepted their differences?

Both partners have to put Christ first. Share about what your marriage is like when you have put Christ first and when you haven't.

Read Colossians 3:12-14.

In what ways do you see yourself and your spouse loving one another like these verses challenge us to?

Where do you have room to grow on these ideal qualities?

How has your spouse put you first? How could you grow to put your spouse first in new ways?

Jerry & Michelle Yeager and Dan & Becky Gehrke

What glimpse of the current reality that the Yeager's and Gehrke's shared resonates with you the most? Why?

What advice from the Yeager's and Gehrke's was most impactful for you? Why?

How were you inspired or encouraged by what the Yeager's and Gehrke's shared?

If you were to film a video telling other WCC couples about your life right now, what would you talk about? What have been the struggles for you as spouses? What have been the joys?

What else stuck out to you?

Spend some time together in prayer.
